MAIN STREET NEWS

VOLUME IV, ISSUE 5, November – December 2006

Annual Meeting, December 5, in the Tioga Ballroom

2006 was a great year in Chanute.

Eight (8) new businesses started.

Ten (10) new members joined Main Street.

Thirty-four (34) new jobs were created.

$3,321,811 was invested from the private sector.

$774,800 was invested from the public sector.

Volunteer hours for 2006 were 1,423. This is a testament that people in Chanute care about our community and are dedicated to making Chanute the best it can be. Thank you to everyone.

The Annual Parade of Lights was cancelled this year because of the extreme cold weather and snow. The City did a great job of clearing the streets but the temperatures were too low for singing or playing in the marching band.

Santa did arrive in Chanute for pictures at the Tioga Hotel, Dec. 2 and 9. HO! HO! HO!

Cardinal Drug wins the $100 prize for their window display of
"North Pole, Chanute Branch".

Thank You to
Debbie Shields,
Nathan Falk,
Mike Call,
Cherryl Olson,
Paul Collins,
Russ Vallier
and all who worked on the parade. We appreciate your willing spirit and I know you are on Santa's "good" list.

PEACE ON EARTH, GOOD WILL TO MEN
